it but I am not against cockfighting as such nor am I against the man raising one dog to hunt coyotes or something like that but I wouldn't be against that but I would be against raising dogs to fight each other. When I was a young kid, I used to love to see if my dog could whip my neighbor kid's dog. This is one of the things we used to laugh at. We didn't bet on it, but, Senator Chambers, I do want to stop cockfighting in Sarpy County. I know these people. I have worked beside them in the packing house. I know exactly who they are, not all of them, but many of them. They are not quite as scary as you think they are. They are a pretty brave bunch but when you spend 25 years in a packing house, you learn how to do such things. PRESIDENT: Is Senator DeCamp excused?

CLERK: He was excused, Mr. President, until he arrives.

PRESIDENT: What shall we do with the motion? Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Chairman, since a kill motion can be made at any point, I don't want to hold the bill for that purpose. I am not trying to undo Senator DeCamp, but that could be a way to delay the bill, and at any point, I say again, along the way he can still offer that motion.

PRESIDENT: Senator Clark.

SENATOR CLARK: I think normally, Mr. President, in this
